

“Animal Inn” Test

1. Why are snags sometimes called “animal inns”?
2. Name a winged mammal that lives in a snag?
3. What kind of bird excavates tree cavities?
4. Name an insect that helps recycle a tree.
5. Name a snag resident that plays with its food in water.
6. What do fungi, lichens and mosses do for a snag?
7. This snag resident can gnaw through concrete and have up to 50 babies each year.
8. This reptile lays its eggs and searches for food in snags.
9. This mammal depends upon snags for its winter home.
10. This large mammal dens in large hollow trees and snags.
11. This burrowing resident eats fungi, beetles and even rats. Its stinking spray can cause temporary blindness.
12. Name a vegetarian animal inn resident that is a cousin of rats and squirrels.
13. A type of frog that lives in damp tree cavities and eats insects.